

DEBBY KRATOVIL

---

Hello!

My listing of programs and classes is built from my years of sewing and designing for QUILT magazine. It is constantly evolving. I am also available to tailor make a program for your guild or quilt shop. Detailed workshop listings, along with pictures are available upon request. Visit my website for even more.

Qualifications

- Special Projects Editor for QUILT Magazine - 11 years
- Published over 600 quilt instructional articles
- Pattern Designer
  - ◇ 3 published quilt pattern CDs packaged with QuiltPro software
  - ◇ 2 self-published paper piecing CDs
  - ◇ Redrafted several historical sets of patterns from the early 1930s
  - ◇ Book: Bold, Black & Beautiful Quilts (AQS, 2004)

Biographic Information

Debby Kratovil brings her background as a high school math and English teacher to the world of quilting. She is such a prolific quilter that she has been dubbed the "power quilter" by her quilting friends. Her hundreds of published articles about quilts, easy techniques, and how-tos have helped thousands of quilters discover an easier way to approach a wide range of projects. Her passion for teaching about quilts is only surpassed by her love of writing about them.

She has been Special Projects Editor for QUILT Magazine for 11 years and enjoys teaching through the written word. She has designed hundreds of paper piecing patterns which she has offered free at her web site and has also successfully self-published on CD.

She has redrafted hundreds of historic patterns from the Kansas City Star and series authors - Nancy Page, Ruby McKim, Eveline Foland - which has rekindled a new interest among today's quilters. Her quilting web site is one of the oldest on the internet and even after 10 years continues to inspire quilters the world over.

Debby Kratovil 5130 Charmant Place Atlanta, GA 30360 770.913.0042
www.quilterbydesign.com