Last-born children are generally outgoing and love to entertain others. They are extroverts, preferring to be around others. They can also be very persistent and aren't always concerned about rules. Many actors and comedians are last-borns. My youngest child is a dancer who refuses to be ignored. The fabrics in the Indonesian Floral collection by Springs Creative also say, "Look at me." The complex designs, some floral and some geometric are energetic, while the color palette is bright. These fabrics are just begging to be made into a quilt.
